

Typical Quebec power plant in the wilds—Shawinigan Water and Power's Rapide Blanc development on the St. Maurice River. Hydro power is the "lifblood" of humming industries in Quebec, other areas. Shawinigan is building its sixth plant, at La Trenché rapids, on the St. Maurice, boosting capacity to 1.5 million hp. Aim is 2.5 million hp.